

HONORING THE 2021 DISTRICT 4 CHAMPIONS

Adna Pirates Fastpitch Team

LEWIS COUNTY BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

WHEREAS, the Adna Fastpitch Team just completed a highly successful season, culminating with a 4-3 victory over Forks to claim the 2021 District Championship; and

WHEREAS, the Pirates ended the season with a perfect 18-0 record – which included 11 shutouts – and allowed a total of only 18 runs all season; and

WHEREAS, due to COVID-19 restrictions, fastpitch teams across the state were unable to compete in 2020 and were limited to a shortened season in 2021 without a championship game, and as a result, the 2021 Adna Fastpitch Team retains the State Championship trophy they won in 2019; and

WHEREAS, student-athletes and coaches across the state have showcased true grit in the face of adversity, and Adna's perfect record is a testament to the Pirates' perseverance; and

WHEREAS, the Board of County Commissioners (BOCC) applauds everyone involved with the Adna Fastpitch Team – from the student-athletes and coaches to the parents and other loved ones who cheered the team on – for the Pirates' impressive season; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the BOCC commends the Adna Fastpitch Team for its winning season and publicly thanks all the parents, coaches and volunteers for their support.

DONE IN OPEN SESSION this 11th day of May 2021.
