

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY
For
Professional Services Contract #C06-0202-23
Between
Community Action Council &
Lewis County Public Health and Social Services

Background Information:

Contract name is CAC Youth Advocacy Center.

Lewis County received opioid settlement funds and entered into the One Washington Memorandum of Understanding relating to the allocation and use of the proceeds of the Settlements. The One Washington MOU outlines eligible uses including support treatment of mental health trauma resulting from the traumatic experiences of the opioid user (e.g., violence, sexual assault, human trafficking, or adverse childhood experiences) and family members.

The purpose of this contract is to provide funding to Community Action Council to hire a full-time care coordinator to provide comprehensive wrap-around support to child abuse victims and their non-offending family members before, during, and after the forensic interview and throughout the entire criminal and CPS investigations. The position will also support child abuse prevention education programs throughout Lewis County.

Purpose:

To provide Community Action Council with funding up to $100,000 for services that have been determined eligible under the One Washington MOU.
