Noxious Weed Control Board

NOTICE: Tina Moore, a lavender farmer of the Mineral area, has been forwarded on by the Lewis County Noxious Weed Control Board (LCNWCB) members to the Lewis County Board of County Commissioners for consideration for appointment to the LCNWCB as the representative for Weed District Five (5), representing the communities of Packwood, Randle, Glenoma, Morton, and Mineral areas.

Mission Statement:

It is the mission of the Noxious Weed Board to serve as responsible stewards of Lewis County land and agriculture, and to protect and preserve our ecological resources against the harms of noxious weeds. We endeavor to develop programs that reflect local priorities, meet the needs of county landowners and residents, and carry out the mandate of the Washington State noxious weed law, the RCW 17.10.
