I am seeking appointment to the Veterans Advisory Board for Lewis County.

Name: Candace Johnson

Address: 600 Centralia College Blvd, Centralia, WA 98531

Phone: 360-669-3276

Service Organization: Vet Corps-WDVA

Why do you want to serve on the Veterans Advisory Board?

As a veteran myself, I am deeply passionate about the well-being and support of fellow veterans within our community. Serving on the Veterans Advisory Board presents a unique opportunity for me to channel this passion into meaningful action and contribute positively to the veteran support initiatives in Lewis County.

What skills, service background, or volunteer experience will you bring the Board?

As a current member of the Vet Corps, serving as the Vet Corps navigator for Centralia College, I have had the privilege of directly engaging with veterans and witnessing the challenges they face during their transition to civilian life. My role has provided me with invaluable insights into the specific needs and concerns of veterans, further fueling my dedication to serving this community. With a background as a human resources specialist in the Army, I bring a unique skill set to the table, one that emphasizes organization, communication, and problem-solving—essential qualities for effective leadership and support provision. My experience in human resources has equipped me with the ability to navigate complex systems and advocate for individuals, ensuring they receive the assistance and resources they require.

Moreover, I consider myself to be a strong leader and connector within my community. Through my involvement with the Vet Corps and various community initiatives, I have built meaningful relationships and established myself as a trusted resource for veterans seeking support and guidance. I am passionate about leveraging these connections to foster collaboration and drive positive change for our veteran population.
