

The Chronicle

The Chronicle, Lewis County's Trusted local newspaper, would like to express our gratitude for your continued support over the years. Our paper has a growing subscription base and is available at all major shopping destinations throughout the county.

We are proud to offer online access to all legal advertising placed in The Chronicle, through our website chronline.com and the Washington State Newspaper Association's website wnpa.com/public-notices, available to everyone at no cost.

This year, we are pleased to present your legal printing needs. The bid is $3.80 per 1.20 column inches (10 lines) (equals .38 cents per line) to publish all Lewis County notices for the year from July 1, 2026 to June 30, 2027.

At The Chronicle, our mission is to provide the best community journalism and top-quality products and services to our readers and customers.

- Integrity- we will operate with honesty and substance.
- Loyalty- to our customers, the company, and our community.
- Value- to our customers and meaningful jobs for our employees.
- Service- to our community through our products and civic participation.

We are excited at the prospect of another successful bid for legal printing and the opportunity to strengthen our partnership with the county even further. Thank you for considering The Chronicle as your trusted source for legal printing need.

Sincerely,

Ronda Pogorelc
